WebWeight Study

An internet based weight loss intervention

Nutritionist Glenys Jones was on BBC Radio Cambridgeshire's Drivetime Show on Tuesday 14th April and on Star Radio on Friday 1st May talking about a weight loss study being carried out at HNR that looks at the use of a web-based support programme and a fortified diet drink.

If you are interested in taking part in this internet based weight loss study please contact Hannah Lewis for more details either by email or on 01223 437523.

Please note that the telephone number printed in the Cambridge Crier was incorrect. Please contact Hannah on the above number if you would like to volunteer.
